April Books Plus - National Poetry Month

"Poetry is thoughts that breathe, and words that burn." --Thomas Gray

It's National Poetry Month [1]! We'll celebrate poetry in various forms including haiku, villanelles, sonnets, and sestinas. Please bring a poem or two that you really enjoy. Reading poetry out loud is the best way to experience poetry. Join us during April's Books Plus meeting led by Dory Lynch this Sunday, April 3 at 2:00 p.m.

As always we'll have healthy snacks and Amal's delicious cake, and good fellowship. For more details, see below. Hope to see you there.

Books Plus meets the first Sunday of each month. All are welcome. Join the discussion or simply come to listen. No registration necessary. Drop in.
2 p.m., First Sundays Room 2B

Coming up:
May 1 -- The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn [2] by Mark Twain
Discussion Leader: Elizabeth Gray
"All modern literature comes from one book by Mark Twain called Huckleberry Finn. It is the best book we've had." - Ernest Hemingway
