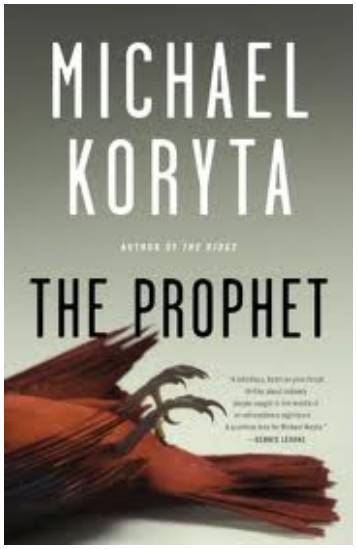
Michael Koryta's The Prophet and Book Signing



Local author Michael Koryta's new book isn't coming out until August 7 but you can already place a hold in our catalog. The Prophet [1] is a straight up thriller that stars two brothers, one as an upstanding high school football coach and the other as a fringe bail bondsman. The brothers are estranged after the devastating fallout resulting from the kidnapping and brutal murder of their sister many years earlier. When a similar murder happens, the brothers must learn to work together before the murderer strikes again. Master thriller author Dennis Lehane says, "The Prophet is a relentless, heart-in-your-throat thriller about ordinary people caught in the middle of an extraordinary nightmare." And Kirkus reviews praises Koryta's newest as "a brilliantly paced thriller that keeps its villains at a tantalizing distance, a compelling family portrait, a study in morality that goes beyond the usual black-and-white judgments, and an entertaining spin on classic football fiction. A flawless performance."

Koryta will be signing books at the Bloomington Barnes and Noble on Wednesday, August 8. Check out his blog [2] for more Midwest signing locations and details.
