Write a review of the book, including plot points, if you wish:
This is one of the best books I have ever read. The main character, Kevin, is full of vulnerability, a sense of humor, emotion, opinions and voice. The storyline is raw, realistically portraying the beliefs and worries that a boy in his situation would have. The book creates a sense of familiarity with the character, and the writing itself is full of power and truth. This book is for anyone who likes stories written in a similar style to The Absolutely True Diary of a Part Time Indian. This is a book that will make you think. It is also a good book to read if you would like to have an interesting conversation or discussion.
