Cafe Indiana : a guide to Indiana's down-home cafes

Staycations in Indiana

Vacation time will soon be here. With gas prices high and disposable income low, it may be another good year for a staycation. Those of us living in Indiana can plan some great overnight trips or even day trips to fun and interesting places throughout Indiana.
The Indiana Room collection has many travel books to help you plan a fun outing.
Just a few examples include the following books.
If you like the unusual and just plain weird, consult Weird Indiana by Mark Merrimen. The Tunnelton Tunnel in Lawrence County is included, the world's first Ferris wheel turned into a bridge near Tifft and the ever popular Gravity Hill near Mooresville are also included.
Indiana Curiosities by Dick Wolfsie is in it's third edition. Arranged by geographic area, this guide lists and describes unusual museums, statues and businesses. The Italian Chapel at Camp Atterbury, built by WW II Italian prisoners of war, Dr. Ted's Musical Marvel's museum near Santa Claus and the Cass County Carousel in Riverside Park in Logansport are just a few examples of entries. Read more »
For the Love of Reading Information, Answers & Reviews A guide to the Knobstone Trail : Indiana's longest footpath Cafe Indiana : a guide to Indiana's down-home cafes Indiana : one pint at a time : a traveler's guide to Indiana breweries Indiana curiosities : quirky characters, roadside oddities & other offbeat stuff Local Interest Travel Weird Indiana your travel guide to the hoosier state's local legends and best kept secrets
Posted by Luann D. on May 10, 2012 Luann D.'s blog Add new comment