

Escape With the 2013 Winter Reading Program

Adult, high school and middle school readers are encouraged to participate in our annual Winter Reading Program. It's easy to enter - read a book, submit an entry. Every week, winning names will be drawn to receive prizes, and a final prize will be given at the end. The more books you read, the more chances you'll have to win.

Enter anytime between January 2 and February 25 at any library location - Main, Ellettsville or the Bookmobile - or online ..

Need help finding a great winter read? If you haven't already, check out MCPL's online book lists .. Whether you are craving contemporary British novels .., non-fiction about cold places .. or for a little of everything try a book that library staff loved in 2012 .. Check out a book today and escape! Adult & Teen Services News .. For the Love of Reading .. Information, Answers & Reviews .. Display .. Library Program ..
