Drop in with your technology-related questions and problems. Tech trainer Austin Stroud provides on-the-spot assistance during these open Computer Lab hours. All questions—big or small—are welcome.

Drop in to Program Room 2C on the second floor.

Assistance previous participants have asked for includes setting up an email account, downloading eBooks and audiobooks, starting a job search, using a flash drive, sending an attachment, using the library catalog, finding information online, and much more.
