

Young minds aren't the only things blooming at the Branch!

Visit the Children's Room at the Ellettsville Branch and you will see our violets love the space as do families. Sit in a window seat to read together or play with blocks or train table in this special space. Many children enjoy the room before and after our programs. The NEW BROCHURE is now available in the library and sign-ups can be made through our website.

Posted by Stephanie H. on August 29, 2012

Blogs:

Ellettsville Branch