

Celebrate Martin Luther King, Jr. Day at MCPL!

Monday, January 16, is Martin Luther King, Jr. Day. Please come to the library for children's films (including Martin's Big Words .) and readings of children's books promoting diversity, tolerance, and equal rights, and last but not least, to do crafts and activities provided by local group Nur Festivals. Most activities will occur between 10 a.m. and noon, and all are drop-in events. Help us celebrate a special day and a remarkable man!
