Write a review of the book, including plot points, if you wish:

Love that Dog is a wonderful story about a boy named Jack who hates poetry. Jack is really good at poetry but is afraid to show it because he thinks poetry is for girls. Throughout the story Jack faces problems that change his life and slowly learns to love poetry.

Would you recommend this book?:

Yes I would recommend this book. It may be short but it teaches the reader how poetry can affect you positively and how people can overcome the belief of a stereotype.
