Book Title:

The name of this book is secret

Author:

Pseudonymous Bosch

Why did you decide to read this book? Did a friend suggest it? Did it have an interesting cover?:

I found this book in the school library, and thought that I could have a hoot with this book. i read and read at night and i was hooked! i tried to encourage my friends to read this book, but they won't give it a chance.

What is the story about?/What happened in the story?:

Cass, a survivalist and Max-Ernest, a boy interested in jokes, riddles, and codes, find a notebook that belonged to a deceased magician, may hold the key to the secret that could change history. With the symphony of smells, they need to travel to the place you would least expect.

Why did you like this story? or Why did you not like this story?:

I liked that the author, Pseudonymous Bosch added detail to the story line and that he or she, or a monkey added activities at the end of each book, (except the last one :) the author also tries to stop at nothing to have the reader stop reading, and that he can't keep a secret. The author gives us clues that he hates mayonnaise, loves chocolate, and also loves cheese.

Other thoughts or feelings about this story? Anything else to add?:

i have thoughts of who could he or she be, but i guess not all questions can be answered.
