Why did you decide to read this book? Did a friend suggest it? Did it have an interesting cover?:

I happened to be searching the Library, trying to find a good series to get into! And this book's colorful cover caught my eye! I read the back of this book, and the first few pages. I really liked what the story was about. So, I checked it out.

What is the story about?/What happened in the story?:

The Twins, Emma and Payton, decided to switch places. And a mean girl at their middle school, busted them. They got in big trouble! They now have community service. Not exactly what they expected. Emma is responsible for Counselor Case's twin sons, Mason and Jason. Payton has to clean out the basement for the drama club, because the play Wizard of Oz was going to be performed. Both girls struggled to do their jobs. Emma was able to participate in a math competition. Payton was able to hear the actors for the play rehearse. In the end of the story, Emma had won the math competition, competing against several different schools, and a boy she liked came through to her. On the other hand, the play was about to start, and Payton was backstage. The actor for Glinda, happened to fall and sprain her ankle. Payton knows all the lines for her. So she finally gets to be in the play, like she dreamed! And she finds out a boy likes her. Then Emma and Payton go home after the play as happy as can be!

Why did you like this story? or Why did you not like this story?:

I liked this story because there was a lot of action. Everyone always had the right words to say. And the twins never backed down. Honestly there was nothing I didn't like about this story.(:

Other thoughts or feelings about this story? Anything else to add?:

You should read this book. It's very inspirational. And teaches you that sometimes when you think you are just having a little fun, you can get in a lot of trouble at the same!
