Winter of the Ice Wizard is one of the forty-two books by Mary Pope Osborne. She has written forty-two books that is in the sequence of "The Magic Tree House" books. It has two main characters whose names are Jack and Annie. They are brother and sister and a couple of years (books) back they stumbled upon a tree with a tree house on it in the middle of Frog Creek Woods in Pennsylvania. They climbed the rope ladder up the tree and found a book inside. They read a passage from the book and right after they did they were soon taken to another part of the world to help a wizard named Merlin complete another mission. Read this book to find out how they make the mission complete.
