

Indian Student Association

Address International Center
111 S. Jordan
Bloomington, In 47405

Description The Indian Student Association (ISA) at Indiana University in Bloomington, is a student-led organization, founded by Indians of Indiana University and led by an elected executive board consisting of sixteen chairpersons. The association strives to bring awareness to Indian culture to both the campus and Bloomington community through some of the university's biggest cultural programs, independently and in conjunction with other ethnic organizations, as well as sponsoring volunteer work in the Bloomington community.

Contact Serena Patel (Presdient)
isa [at] indiana.edu

Additional Contact International Center

Community Organizations Subjects 6 - International Cultural Exchange Indiana University Student Organization

April 3, 2017