

"Stanford Wong Flunks Big-Time" reviewed by Anna Yoon on June 2, 2013

view in catalog

Your Name:

Anna Yoon

Your Age:

11

Book Title:

Stanford Wong Flunks Big-Time

Author:

Lisa Yee

Why did you decide to read this book? Did a friend suggest it? Did it have an interesting cover?:

I had read another book from Lisa Yee, and I realized that there was a series of books from her. I like the first book I read, which was "Millicent Min, Girl Genius." So I knew that the other book would be interesting too.

What is the story about?/What happened in the story?:

This story is about a boy named Stanford Wong who has flunked English. He can't let anybody know that, because he's got a whole basketball team who will not like a boy that flunked, and Emily Ebers will never like him if he's stupid. As he makes up lies and feels guilty for himself, something makes everything normal.

Why did you like this story? or Why did you not like this story?:

I like this story because this book is in a diary/journal form. It describes the feeling of Stanford.

Other thoughts or feelings about this story? Anything else to add?:

This book is actually connected to some other books by Lisa Yee, so if you liked this book, other books will be fun too! :)

Rate Your Read:

Average: 4 (1 vote)

Stanford Wong Flunks Big-Time