Write a review of the book, including plot points, if you wish:

This book was about a girl who loved her horse and the horse passed away. She was not for sure if she would ever feel the same about an animal ever again. But for her birthday she got a puppy and she's not for sure how to handle that because she is still sad that her horse died. She learns that every animal is special and she discovers that even though her horse died it doesn't mean she can not love her new puppy.

Would you recommend this book?:

I would recommend this book to someone who likes puppies, or has an animal who died and does not want another animal. This book will teach you how to love another animal even if another animal was really special to you and it passed away.
